

The "Do Not Call" law in the state of NJ should be continued as it is written. Just because I have done business with a business within the last 18 months does not mean that I want to be disturbed by phone calls requesting more business from that firm.

KEEP THE DO NOT CALL LAW AS IT IS.